

Special Position Paper Format for the Diplomacy Committee

Special Position Paper Format for the Diplomacy Committee

Position Papers are due by midnight on or before Sunday, January 12th.

Please use Times New Roman, 12 Point font. Titles need to be in bold font. Your borders should be at one-inch. Parts 1 to 3 should be three double-spaced pages, maximum. Part 4 should be in its own separate page. Part 5 (Novice and Middle-school delegates only) is a page.

Part 1: History of Expanding/Defending Territory – Double Spaced

Include a thorough overview of all the different methods of conquest that have happened in your country's region, including how various nations may have: 1) Expanded their territory, 2) Defended the territory they occupied. Remember to include both militaristic and political actions your nation has taken.

Part 2: Foreign Interactions – Double Spaced

What are interactions your country or region has had in the past with the other nations of this conflict?
What are the major concerns your country has?

Part 3: Committee Plans – Double Spaced

What are potential actions and moves your country might take in the early stages of the game? near the end? What nations would you potentially form alliances with? How do you plan to negotiate with other countries?

Part 4: Works Cited – MLA Format